

PAINTING COMPETITION

For 2021 SOLWAY FORESTS RED SQUIRREL CALENDAR

With thousands of young people impacted by Covid19 the Solway Forests Red Squirrel Network are inviting everyone from the ages of 4-18 years to take part in our Red squirrel painting and calendar competition. We would like you to paint a picture that encompasses all that is Red Squirrel.

The Red squirrel is Scotland's indigenous species and we want to take this opportunity to do something positive. Without uttering a single word, a single picture can enlighten, educate and effect social change, raising awareness and inspiring hope and action through creative communication. Please inspire us.

Theme

Artwork must follow the theme of Red Squirrel Conservation and must include a picture of a Red squirrel in the painting.

Rules and Guidelines

All artwork must be original and painted on paper measuring A4 size but landscape. Any medium of paint (whatever you have) may be utilized.

Bright colours should be used because they are best for reprinting.

You can upload a photograph of your artwork or scan it, but please keep your original artwork.

Four Age Categories: Ages 4-7, 8-10, 11-14, 15-18 years.

3 paintings will be chosen from each age group to represent the 12 months of the year. The judges' overall special painting will be the front cover of the calendar.

Contact details: Name, address, email or telephone number must be included.

Closing Date July 31st 2020
