10th March 2021

Dear Parent/Carer

Senior Phase (S4, S5 and S6) Specific Arrangements – 15th to 26th March 2021

This information should be read alongside the Return to School Letter issued to all parents/carers.

Learners in the senior phase S4, S5 and S6: will be in school for two days each week. They will be invited into school on a Monday and Friday and will participate in the equivalent of four days of teaching over the fortnight. Young people will focus on continued preparation for national qualifications. In addition, certain learners in S4, S5 and S6 will continue to attend classes where they are undertaking essential practical activities over the course of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. These young people will be notified of the days on which they should attend with a focus on practical work associated with their national qualifications.

How this will work in practice:

There is an S4-6 information assembly planned for Friday, 12th March 2021 at 9.15am – your son/daughter will have already received an e-invitation to this event.

If your son/daughter is in any doubt about any of these specific arrangements, they should contact Mrs Chambers without delay.

Your continued support with all of this is very much appreciated.

Yours faithfully

Mrs T. Woods
Head Teacher
